

Fitting the Pieces Together:
The Child Protection Network
Protocol for Best Practices in Jackson County

Learn the current protocols for Jackson County's child protection team & how the investigations of child abuse cases are coordinated by community partners including:

Children's Division ~ Law Enforcement ~ Child Protection Center
Children's Mercy Hospital ~ Family Court/Juvenile Office
Prosecutor's Office ~ Rose Brooks Center

When: Friday, June 4, 2010

9:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. (Registration begins at 8:30)

Where: Kansas City Police Training Academy, Room 302
6885 NE Pleasant Valley Rd, Kansas City, MO

What: Training will include:

- Specific provisions of the CPN protocol established for investigating cases of child abuse in Jackson County
- How the collaboration process for investigation & use of the protocol can strengthen cases for child protection & potential prosecution
- How medical evaluations & forensic interviews fit into the investigative process
- How the co-occurrence of child abuse & domestic violence impact cases

Presenters: Lori Fluegel, Jackson County Prosecutor's Office

Beth Banker, Child Protection Center

Al Smith, Jackson County Children's Division

Sheri Daugherty & Monica Nielsen, Children's Mercy Hospital

Sgt. Sondra Zink, KCMO Police Department

Tina Malinowski & Marie Alcocer, Rose Brooks Center

Cost: Free of charge; Lunch will be provided.

To Register: Please call the Child Protection Center, 816-778-8000

This training is POST-certified for 2 hrs Legal Study and 5.5 hrs Technical

Continuing education credits will be provided for Social Workers & Attorneys

